THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY

This Bureau has not conducted an investigation of the John Birch Society (JBS) or its founder Robert H. W. Welch, Jr. However, the files of this Bureau disclose the following information.

The JBS was organized in Indianapolis, Indiana, in December, 1958, by Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., a candy manufacturer of Belmont, Massachusetts, in order to further Welch's anticommunist campaign. It was incorporated on December 23, 1958, as a nonprofit business organization under the laws of the State of Massachusetts. The aims and purposes of the organization were listed as to promote civic interest in national and international affairs by an educational program and the collection and dissemination of literature for educational purposes. Welch has characterized the long-range objective of the JBS as "less government, more responsibility and a better world."

In an article "The Wrong Way to Fight Reds" by Mabley in the January 30, 1961, issue of the "Chicago News," a Chicago, Illinois, daily newspaper, Mabley is on Welch and the Society. Mabley states Welch, in his own words, is absolute boss of the Society and quotes Welch as saying the Society must be run by a "hard-boiled, tactical and dynamic boss." Mabley sums up his article stating the communist threat in this country is real; the country needs the energy and interest of every man who will work to counteract communist evil; but unbelievable irresponsibility espoused secretly by the JBS can bring only scorn and harm to real anti-Communist.

Welch authored a book entitled "The Politician," 1961, which he did not have published but had a limited number of copies printed, which he sent to friends who he believed would be interested in its contents. A review of this book disclosed it was a vicious attack on the political beliefs of former President Eisenhower and, by innuendo, alluded to President Eisenhower as being procommunist.

Welch also publishes a magazine "American Opinion," which was incorporated January 13, 1956, under the laws of the State of Massachusetts, and which he also uses as an outlet for his anticommunist crusade. As an example of the type of material which appears in "American Opinion" an article was published in the October, 1959, edition entitled "A Review of Reviews" written by Revilo P. Oliver, a professor at the University of Illinois. This article contained allegations that between 70 and 80 per cent of the responsible officers in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (DHEW) are members or accomplices of the communist conspiracy. This appears to be a follow-up of a speech made by Oliver in March, 1959, at which time he allegedly stated that one third of the top echelon of the communist conspirators in this country are in the DHEW and stated his source was Herbert Philbrick. Philbrick, a former FBI informant, upon interview has denied giving Oliver any information concerning communist infiltration of the DHEW. Our files disclose that Philbrick never furnished such information to the FBI.

Today Mr. [REDACTED] called the Bureau and spoke to SA Heim in my office. He said that he had noted an article in the "Los Angeles Examiner" issue of Saturday, April 1, 1961, concerning the John Birch Society. The article, written by Frank Coniff, stated that the John Birch Society was anti-Catholic, anti-Semitic and anti-U.S., according to the caller. He said that the article mentioned FBI Director Hoover's recent statement against vigilante action and that the article by inference or implication if not outright statement related that the FBI disapproved of the Birch Society.

[REDACTED] said that he is a Catholic and is not a member of the Birch Society. He remarked that he had checked on the Birch Society and could find nothing in its material which appeared to be anti-Catholic or anti-U.S. He said that he has always held Mr. Hoover and the FBI in the highest esteem and was most grateful that the security of the whole country was in their hands. If the FBI has, in fact, investigated and found the John Birch Society to be subversive, [REDACTED] stated that he will be the first to oppose it. He said, however, that he wanted to know what the FBI's feelings were concerning this organization.

It was pointed out to Mr. [REDACTED] that the FBI as an investigative organization of the Federal Government did not make any evaluations or statements concerning the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. It was emphasized that accordingly such action was not within the province or the jurisdiction of the FBI and that it would be entirely wrong to say or infer that Mr. Hoover or the FBI had made any such statement or evaluation of this or any other organization. In response to Mr. [REDACTED] inquiry concerning the Director's recent statement against "vigilante action," he was advised that the Director has on several occasions as a matter of policy spoken out against reckless and vigilante action in connection with law enforcement and the national security of the country.

membership. The next paragraph added that WELCH, the head of the JBS, was not present for the talk and that the JBS was not discussed by Mrs. [REDACTED]

Mrs. [REDACTED] was very much upset by the article because she said it was a deliberate lie and a plot on the part of someone to destroy her and [REDACTED]" and to discredit the fight against communism. She also felt that the article was an attempt to make it appear that she supported the JBS and/or to force her to take a position on that subject.

Mrs. [REDACTED] explained that she had been invited to speak before the AI by the [REDACTED], at the suggestion of HERBERT [REDACTED] AI President. She stated that her topic was to be "No. One Issue - Survival." While working out the arrangements for the talk, Mrs. [REDACTED] agreed that the JBS would not be discussed.

Mrs. [REDACTED] arrived at the hall where she was to speak somewhat tardy because of traffic congestion. As she entered the hall, [REDACTED] chairman of the affair, was explaining to the audience that Mrs. [REDACTED] would not discuss the JBS.

Mrs. [REDACTED] in her talk, did not mention the JBS. During the question and answer period which followed her talk, she was asked if the JBS would become the subject of a Senate investigation. The chairman immediately ruled the question out of order. However, Mrs. [REDACTED] remarked that since she was neither a Senator nor a member of the JBS, she was in no position to answer the question.

As the affair ended, one of the audience introduced himself to Mrs. [REDACTED] the "New Bedford Standard-Times."

Mrs. [] wanted the Bureau to be informed that:

- 1) She had been invited to speak at this affair by the AI at the suggestion of its president, HERBERT PHILBRICK.
- 2) She did not mention the JBS during her talk.
- 3) She made it clear that she was not a member of the JBS.
- 4) Some time ago, she declined an invitation to write for "American Opinion," which is published by the JBS.

Mrs. [] solicited suggestions as to whether she should do anything to correct the implication made by the article that she was a member of the JBS. She was politely informed that the Bureau could not advise her in this matter. After talking for some time, Mrs. [] said she would call Mr. [] the "Standard-Times", and discuss this with him.

Mrs. [] called later to report that she had discussed the matter with []. A letter was received from captioned individual on April 6. He apparently is upset over present attempts on the part of many of the newspapers to link the Director's introduction to the April 1, 1961, issue of the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin to the John Birch Society. Re SAC Letter 60-5, which contains background data concerning captioned organization.

There is being summarized data of possible Bureau interest relative to the John Birch Society (JBS), based upon press articles which have recently appeared in Portland daily newspapers.

The Oregonian, Portland daily newspaper, on 3/29/61 contained an article entitled "Salty Self-Styled Rebel Claims John Birch Label," under the byline of [redacted] staff writer, for the Oregonian. The article quotes JOSEPH A. MALLON, age 69, a resident of Pleasant Valley on a 40 acre farm east of Portland as having stated that he was the "original John Birch Society" in Oregon.

The second article in the series by Staff Writer [redacted] appearing in The Oregonian on 3/30/61, entitled "Anti-Red Society Pioneer Traces Group's Growth in Oregon," noted the JBS "apparently" came to Oregon "about two years ago" and referred to JOSEPH A. MALLON as having stated that he was the head of the state's first chapter. MALLON was reported as having stated he had received a letter from ROBERT WELCH, founder and head of the JBS, appointing MALLON "chapter leader" for the "first chapter in Oregon," which was "to be Chapter No. 143."

The above article went on to state that another "early leader" was [redacted] Portland insurance man and [redacted] Portland. In a written statement, reportedly written for the Oregonian, [redacted] related, according to the article, that in [redacted]

All but one of the seven became associated with the society. [] became a "part" of the organization in January, 1960 and remained so until July 1, 1960. He reportedly organized a "number of chapters" throughout Oregon and disagreed with MALLON's statement that the latter was the first JBS member in Oregon. MALLON indicated that some of his chapter's members later formed their own chapters, it being his guess that there were "about eight other chapters in the Portland area," six of them started by original members of his group. He described chapters as normally having an average of twenty members with a maximum of thirty members.

A third article by Staff Writer [] appearing in The Oregonian on 3/31/61, entitled "Internal Disagreement Apparent in Extremist Birch Society," refers to PAUL CLEMENT, 71 year old television repairman, 3907 SE Clinton Street, Portland, as one of Oregon's early John Birch members, and one of those in MALLON's chapter.

In referring to his job, [redacted] noted he received $300 per month, plus mileage from JBS headquarters for his work. Dues were stated to be $24 per year for men and $12 for women. He stated his official duties included helping set up chapters and making sure existing chapters are functioning effectively, his activities thus far being in the area west of the Cascade range.

The fifth and concluding article in the series by [redacted] appeared in the 4/2/61 issue of The Oregonian under the title "John Birch Founder Says 'Fantastic' Measures Required." According to this article there "reportedly" are chapters of the JBS in Eugene, Medford, Grants Pass, Lebanon and Newport (Oregon), in addition to "several" believed to exist in Portland. The article described [redacted], proprietor of [redacted] as a "John Birch member," belonging to the chapter of Mrs. [redacted], in Tigard, Oregon.

On 3/30/61, an article entitled "John Birch Society Flourishing in Oregon" appeared in the Oregon Journal, Portland daily newspaper, in which [redacted] Portland insurance man, was quoted as having stated that he had organized the JBS in Oregon in Medford, Grants Pass, Newport, Lebanon and Portland, devoting six months to the task, after attending a 1959 meeting in Seattle where he met ROBERT WELCH, founder of the JBS. The article made further reference to Mrs. [redacted] Tigard, Oregon, as leader of the JBS chapter in the Southwest Portland suburban area. Mrs. [redacted] was reported as having stated the chapter had been meeting monthly in her home.

Meanwhile, on April 5, 1961, the Oregon Journal contained an article with dateline of "Washington Bureau of Journal," captioned "Birch Group Actions Scored by Representative Green" in which the Oregon Congressman EDITH GREEN reportedly called upon the people to judge "outfits like the JBS not in terms of what they say they are against but in terms of what they say they are for." Her remarks reportedly followed receipt by her of a substantial number of letters from "Portlanders and other Oregon residents" who identified themselves as members of the JBS or whom she

The Oregonian on 4/6/61 contained an article under "Washington (Special)" dateline, entitled "John Birch Society Puts Green on 'Sympathizer' List," in which Representative GREEN was quoted as having stated in her newsletter to constituents that she had been termed a "Communist sympathizer" for disagreeing with the JBS members and others demanding the impeachment of Chief Justice EARL WARREN of the U. By letter of 4-1-61, the above-captioned individual forwarded a copy of his communication to "The New Castle News." His letter refers to the John Birch Society pointing out that the Department of Justice has voiced their concern over the organization, and the Director's April, 1961, Law Enforcement Bulletin Introduction criticizes vigilante action. He indicates that although he is not a member of the Society, he does question the disapproval of this anticommunist group particularly when the American public is constantly being urged to support the fight against communism.

Bufiles contain no identifiable information regarding [REDACTED]

The John Birch Society was founded in 12-58 in Indianapolis, Indiana, by Robert H. Welch, Jr., of Belmont, Massachusetts. It is incorporated under laws of State of Massachusetts; is allegedly anti-communist; has chapters throughout the country; and has not been investigated by the Bureau. Welch and the Society in the past have been extremely critical of former President Eisenhower.

As [REDACTED] letter is not addressed to the Director, it is not felt desirable to become involved in his questions regarding this highly controversial group.

To avoid the possibility of any misunderstanding, I want to add that when we members of JBS urged that Mr. Hoover be appointed Attorney General, it was not at the instigation of Mr. Hoover. So far as I know, Mr. Hoover has been completely unaware of this action on our part.

As an afterthought, it occurred to me that this point should be clarified completely.

In accordance with the telephonic request of Administrative Assistant to the Attorney General John Seigenthaler to Assistant Director C. A. Evans of this Bureau on April 3, 1961, there is enclosed a memorandum concerning the John Birch Society and its founder Robert H. W. Welch, Jr.

Neither the Society nor Welch has been investigated by this Bureau. However, our field offices are alert for any indication of subversive influence within the organization or any of its chapters.

We are answering inquiries from the press and public for information concerning the Society by stating that this Bureau is an investigative agency of the Federal Government and, as such, does not make evaluations or draw conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. However, in the introduction to the "FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin," dated April 1, 1961, I specifically pointed out the need for an objective and dispassionate approach in fighting the communist menace. I felt this step was necessary because of the rash of vigilante-type individuals and organizations springing up throughout the country which tend to depart from fact and use gossip, hearsay and unsubstantiated charges in fighting communism. In the long run, such tactics will hinder rather than help in this fight.

The following information is set forth concerning the John Birch Society (JBS) and its founder Robert H. W. Welch, Jr.

Background Concerning the Society

The Society was organized in Indianapolis, Indiana, in December, 1958, by Robert H. W. Welch, Jr., a wealthy candy manufacturer of Belmont, Massachusetts, to further Welch's anticommunist campaign. It was incorporated on December 23, 1958, as a nonprofit business organization under the laws of the State of Massachusetts and was assigned Charter Number 624-300. The officers were listed as Robert Welch, President and Treasurer, and [redacted] Clerk (Secretary). The Directors were listed as [redacted] Robert Welch and [redacted] The Incorporators were listed as Robert Welch; [redacted] Robert Welch); [redacted] and [redacted] All of the aforementioned are residents of the Boston, Massachusetts, area. The aims and purposes of the organization were listed as to promote civic interest in national and international affairs by an educational program and the collection and dissemination of literature for educational purposes. Welch has characterized the long-range objective of the Society as "less government, more responsibility and a better world."

According to recent newspaper accounts, the Society at the beginning of 1961 had chapters in approximately 35 states and it has been estimated that the Society might have 100,000 members at the end of 1961. The most pronounced activity on the part of Welch and the Society in his anti-communist campaign has been charges of communists being in high Government positions, including former President Dwight D. Eisenhower. The most recent major activity in this regard has been the calling for the impeachment of Chief Justice Earl Warren of the United States Supreme Court. A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past has advised that [redacted] of Dallas, Texas, who has been identified in the past as being a former member of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, recently stated he was a member of the JBS and praised the work of the Society. [redacted] stated the Society, without mentioning integration, would only be fighting communism but added that actually communism is the "root of it all" indicating, according to the source, that [redacted] meant fighting communism is also fighting integration. The source advised that [redacted] stated the main work of the Society at the present time is writing letters to Congressmen and other prominent officials, never using the Society's name, and in getting windshield and bumper stickers on as many cars as possible reading "Impeach Earl Warren."

By memorandum from Assistant Attorney General J. Walter Yeagley dated August 30, 1960, Yeagley, in referring to the Society, advised that the Department's records contained no Bureau reports on either the Society or Welch and requested this Bureau to conduct an investigation of the Society pursuant to Executive Order 10450. By memorandum dated September 8, 1960, he was advised that no information had been received by this Bureau indicating any subversive elements in the Society and that in view of this, together with the background information concerning the Society and Welch which had previously been furnished the then Attorney General by memoranda dated March 6 and September 11 and 16, 1959, all captioned "Robert H. W. Welch, Jr.," no investigation of the Society would be conducted unless a subsequent request was received from the Department. To date no subsequent request has been received from the Department for an investigation of the Society or Welch.

The Present Controversy

The JBS is probably one of the most controversial organizations in the country today. This controversy stems mainly from the allegations made by Welch and the Society alluding to President Eisenhower being procommunist; the allegations that there are communists in other high Government positions; and calling for the impeachment of Chief Justice Warren. This controversy has led to many attacks on Welch and the Society through the newspapers and in some congressional circles, while at the same time other newspapers and congressional circles have defended Welch and the Society. However, to date this controversy has been confined, at least in congressional circles, to the issue of Welch and the Society and not to the issue of Chief Justice Warren's impeachment.

This controversy slowly gathered momentum until it appears to have reached its peak within the past week when some Congressmen and Senators denounced Welch and the Society while others backed Welch and the Society. According to newspaper accounts, both the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (SISS) and the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) have been requested to hold hearings concerning the Society. According to such accounts, Senator Thomas J. Dodd, Vice Chairman of SISS, has denounced the Society and Welch's attack on President Eisenhower and on March 31, 1961, Dodd stated he would bring up the possibility of investigating the Society at the Subcommittee's next meeting. Also according to newspaper accounts, Congressman Francis Walter, Chairman of the HCUA, has stated that the HCUA has received many letters complaining about the Society but none contained material information indicating the HCUA could or should launch an investigation. Walter has further stated that it is not the function of the HCUA to serve as a sounding board either for an organization against individuals or for individuals against an organization. In addition, Senator John L. McClellan, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Government Operations, has been quoted in the press as stating on March 31, 1961, that his Committee has no plans to investigate the Society because his Committee has no jurisdiction to do so.

In addition to this controversy splitting congressional circles into those attacking Welch and the Society and those backing Welch and the Society, the controversy has split congressional circles on the issue of whether a congressional hearing or hearings should be conducted of Welch and the Society. Some congressional members are demanding an investigation while others are claiming there is no basis or authority for such an investigation.

Background Concerning Welch

The files of this Bureau disclose that Welch resides at 43 Fletcher Road, Belmont, Massachusetts; has an office at 810 Main Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, where he is an officer and director of the James O. Welch Company, a candy company; and has an office at 385 Concord Avenue, Belmont, Massachusetts, from which literature of the Society is mailed and distributed. In February, 1959, this Bureau received information indicating that Welch had authored a book entitled "The Politician," which book Welch did not have published but had a limited number of copies printed which he sent to friends and individuals who he believed would be interested in its contents. A review of this book disclosed that it was mainly a vicious attack on the political life and beliefs of President Eisenhower. In this book Welch by innuendo alluded to former President Eisenhower as being procommunist. Photostats of the pertinent portion of "The Politician," as well as background information concerning Welch and the Society, were disseminated to the then Attorney General by memoranda dated March 6, 1959, September 11, 1959, and September 16, 1959, all captioned "Robert H. W. Welch, Jr."

Newspaper accounts have quoted Welch as stating that he is the absolute boss of the Society and as saying the Society must be run by a "hard-boiled, dictatorial and dynamic boss."

A description of the tactics employed by Welch in carrying on the activities of the Society is seen in the statement of Spruille Braden, the former United States Ambassador and a member of the Society's council, as quoted in an article on the Society which appeared on page six of the March 30, 1961, issue of the "New York Journal-American," a daily New York City newspaper. In this article Braden stated he did not agree with Welch's charge against President Eisenhower; that Welch may exaggerate sometimes; but "When you're in a barroom brawl, no holds are barred. You don't fight by the Marquis of Queensberry rules."

As could be expected, communists both at home and abroad were quick to see the propaganda value in the news expose of the John Birch Society.

Under a Washington dateline, the Yugoslav news agency Tanyug notes the alarm caused by the activity of the John Birch Society, terming it "a semi-clandestine profascist organization with a program similar to that of the Ku Klux Klan." Further, that in its "radical anticommunist campaign" it has gone so far as to pronounce Presidents Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower as well as the late John Foster Dulles, communists. The article states that the Society has about 100,000 members, some of whom are well-known industrialists, government and Pentagon officials, who are not only combating communism but the constitutional rights of Negroes, the United Nations and American assistance to foreign countries. (FBIS/CIA, USSR & EAST EUROPE, 4/6/61, p. NN)

The Midwest Edition of The Worker on 4/9/61 states that the John Birch Society, which calls itself a "patriotic anti-Communist" outfit, has an inter-linking with blatant racism and even pro-Nazis. In propagandizing the racial issue, the article attacks the Grosse Point (Michigan) Property Owners Association, which apparently screens prospective home buyers by a racist "point" system, noting that its executive secretary was one of the leaders of the John Birch Society in Michigan. The article reflects there are twenty-two chapters of the Society in Michigan and promises that next week's issue will give the "inside story" about the Society.

would make no comment. He stated that he planned to send the article to the headquarters of the John Birch Society in Massachusetts with the recommendation that they contact the FBI in Washington ~~relative to the statement appearing~~ in the article and seek to get some clarification on it. He stated that if this was the FBI position on the group he did not want to be associated with it. He stated that the John Birch Society desired to cooperate with the FBI and that the members in Davidson County have the highest regard for the FBI. He stated that he felt sure that this was a misquote in the paper but that it was having the effect of driving many people out of the John Birch Society and he hoped that something could be done to ~~eliminate~~ some clarification which could be published which would end the confusion.

APPENDIX

Pages A2087-A2092. Senator Young, (R) North Dakota, extended his remarks concerning the John Birch Society. He included an editorial from the St. Paul (Minnesota) Dispatch of March 10, 1961, entitled "A Job for HUAC," and an editorial from the Minot (North Dakota) Daily News of March 14, 1961, entitled "Twisted Perversion of Facts." He also included the "Application for Membership" required of prospective members of this Society. The application states "If my application is accepted, I agree that my membership may be revoked at any time, by a duly appointed officer of the society, without the reason being stated, on refund of the pro rata part of my dues paid in advance." Mr. Young stated "This is a strange procedure for an organization which professes to support the Constitution of the United States and the rights guaranteed under it."

By letter of March 31, 1961, the above-captioned individual stated he was surprised that the Director has failed to issue a statement giving a clean bill of health to the John Birch Society. He indicates he is a member of the Society, and they are fighting the Bureau's opponents in the war with communism. He stated that this is why they are being smeared and would like the Director to issue a word on behalf of the Society.

The John Birch Society was founded in 12-58 in Indianapolis, Indiana, by Robert H. Welch, Jr., of Belmont, Massachusetts. It is incorporated under laws of State of Massachusetts; is allegedly anti-communist; has chapters throughout the country; and has not been investigated by the Bureau. Welch and the Society in the past have been extremely critical of former President Eisenhower. (62-104401)

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. MOHR
MR. DELOACH

Mr. [redacted]

[redacted] called to inquire what I knew about the John Birch Society stating he had been gone when this came up and he did not know much about it. He stated that a lot of their enthusiastic young writers, he believed on the basis of no more information than he had, have rushed in and tried to vituperate Robert Welch on the basis of what is in the newspapers. He stated before they issue any editorials on this they wanted to be sure of their facts.

Mr. [redacted] stated he knew quite a few people whose opinions he respected say while this man may be indiscreet he has been charged with saying that Eisenhower is a card-carrying communist without having facts. Mr. [redacted] stated he was trying to get his people to locate Welch to convince him they want to do an honest story and find out if he said what he is alleged to have said, had he been misquoted, did he say some version or have his statements been taken out of context. Mr. [redacted] wanted to know if we have any clear-cut convictions based on our own facts upon which he could base a lead in checking into this matter.

I told Mr. [redacted] that Welch was in California and that we have never investigated him or the John Birch Society; that all I know is what has appeared in the papers. I stated we were trying to get a copy of what he is alleged to have written, and, of course, a great number of the people against him were of the very type he ^{How I} would like to expose for communist leanings. I stated this does not mean that all are in that category. I felt Welch was probably indiscreet but I believed no one had done the research job which should be done to pin him down so an evaluation could be made. Mr. [redacted] stated this had answered his questions as he was sure such a matter would not have escaped our attention. He stated if it was possible to give him a steer he would appreciate our doing so.
